

BILY's purpose is to help parents who are struggling or in crisis due to the behavior problems of their children.

The support group offers

- Parent-to-parent support
- Effective methodologies
- Tools
- Resources

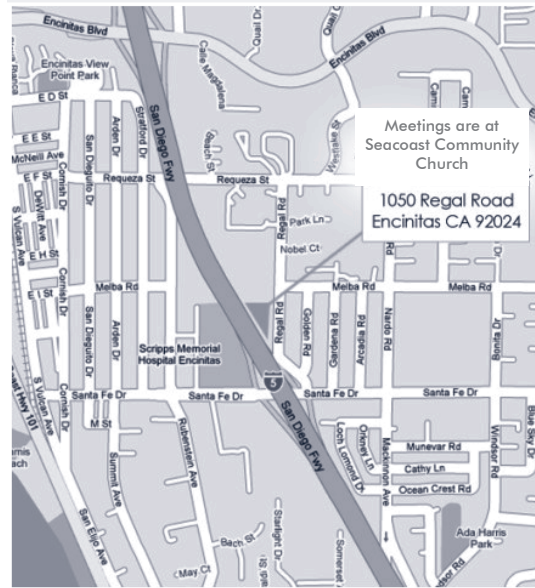

We help parents establish rules, create boundaries, and enforce — with consistency — the consequences they determine appropriate.

Family In Crisis?

Parents...Have you heard these excuses? Has your home become a battleground? Have you lost control?

You don't understand.

Nobody else's parents do that. My teachers hate me.

It isn't my fault!

It's not mine.. It belongs to a friend.

It is my life, I can do what I want!

School is boring.

You can't make me!

BILY San Diego

We are here to help.

We are parents who have been there. We understand!

Who are we?

Our groups are made up of parents, possibly just like yourself, who are dealing with problems ranging from bad attitude to drug use, truancy, and trouble with the law.

Our groups offer support to parents of children of all ages, including adult children.

The groups are run by parents, not professionals. These parents have worked with the BILY program and have been successful with it. They now give back by helping others, while at the same time, continue in their work toward maintaining their established goals.

Beginning April 11, 2011

Meetings are Mondays from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at Seacoast Community Church
1050 Regal Road, Encinitas
